

Evening News (18 June)

Rail fears as city station managers strike

Petrol prices fuel rise in Sainsbury's takings

Forth Road Bridge not so corroded as feared

Aberdeen Evening Express (18 June)

Record hike in price of petrol

Aberdeen flyover a no-go proposal

Cheapest road for Aberdeen blackspot

Thursday 19th June, 2008

Herald

Airline cuts vital services to islands as fuel costs hit

Courier

Delays and contraflow on A90 at Glendoick

SNP has "no idea" on effects of toll removal

P&J

City commuters can now count calories

New offer to tanker drivers worth 14%

UK Nationals

Tories risk rift after runway opposed

Opponents 'do not know how hub works'

London's business edge threatened

[New study to force ministers to review climate change plan \[biofuels\]](#)

Airline proves that small can be beautiful

[On the right track \[letter\]](#)

[Why commuters are losing track \[letters\]](#)

Airlines flying into far worse turbulence than predicted, analysts warn

Mouchel is on right road despite missing M25 deal

Foreign travellers 'evade proper checks in security blunder' at Heathrow's Terminal Five

Tiny airline is 'world's third best'

Food and drink giants share trucks to reduce costs and carbon

Senior executives fear for London's future

Average motorway speeds fall as the price of fuel rises

Drivers face new breakdown peril as busy motorways open hard shoulder

Fuel tax duty is unfair and ungreen

Boeing deals blow to Airbus as audit body supports case to reopen US defence deal

Major US Airlines See USD\$10 Billion Loss In 2008

BBC Online

Warnings of air travel disruption

Bristol named UK's 'cycling city'

Cardboard bikes aid travel call

[\[Medway\] Tunnel bought for nominal £1 sum](#)

Hauliers drive home fuel protest

Locals

Dunfermline Press -Bridge to stay open for HGVs until 2017

Dunfermline Press - Taxi drivers keen to avoid 'huge' fares hike despite rising fuel costs

Fife Today - Bus route change to avoid low bridge