

Evening News (4 Mar)

Trams: "They should be a brilliant addition to the city"

Trams shocker: Residents face window washing ban over electrocution fears

Borders rail link move earns backers

Monorail powered by humans

Friday, 05 March 2010

Scotsman

Plan for fourth Edinburgh tram route - while the first is only half finished

Petrol tax rises hitting British drivers harder than the rest of Europe

Herald

Hopes rise in the Borders as work starts on rail link

P&J

Inverness direct access to Heathrow plea

Government rules out more funding to fix potholes

UK Nationals

Train operators urged to improve punctuality at intermediate stops

Wave of oil tanker deals predicted

Maersk battles to contain losses

No Heathrow direct link in high speed rail plans

Korea thrives as scrappage lifts motor sales

How half our 'on time' trains are anything but...

BBC Online

Transport chiefs 'want Edinburgh tram network'

Borders to Edinburgh rail link project gets under way

Calls for updated laws to cover mobility scooters

BA lines up 1,000 volunteer crew

Transport

SPT - Travel scheme's future secured

Professional Associations

ATOC – Nearly 100% of trains run with the right number of carriages

ATOC – Train companies responds to Passenger Focus report on punctuality

BIFA – UK freight forwarders association uses Multimodal 2010 to promote its offering

BIFA – Shift in attitudes brings opportunities for BIFSA members

FTA – Commit to logistics FTA urges politicians

FTA – Abandoning C-charging will pave way for better schemes, says FTA

NCE – Report claims “too many ministers” spoil the Department for Transport

NCE – Advance works underway on £295 million Borders railway

NCE – High speed rail – the fast track debate

NCE – BAA Planning for a successful future

RFG – New planning regime is good news – but can it deliver?