

Evening News (15th July)

Airport chief defends plan to launch £1 drop-off fee

'Kiss and fly' charge - 'Welcome . . . give us a quid or get lost'

Friday, 16 July 2010

Scotsman

Stagecoach putting £16m into innovative green bus programme

Terry Murden: Does green transport benefit the passenger?

Edinburgh airport chiefs feared £1 'kiss and fly tax' would harm reputation

Airport justified

Provosts still drive around in luxury...and taxpayers pay the cost

Double the jets by 2029, Boeing says

Yet more confusion over airport drop-off charge

[Rail arguments \[letters\]](#)

Herald

Airliner orders to top £2 trillion in 20 years

UK Nationals

EasyJet founder wins Ryanair libel payout

Ryanair's Michael O'Leary tells Sir Stelios Haji-Ioannou, Sorry I called you a liar.

Paper boarding pass set to disappear

Ministers vow to tackle airport delays

Crossrail will be 'value for money'

Ryanair says sorry for its Easyjet Stelios slur

Now wait five more years to get your bus pass: Millions face means test to get free travel

Free bus passes for over-65s only

BBC Online

Sunday ferry opponents 'not the Taliban'

Royal opens new FirstGroup base

Musical performances for Glasgow Airport travellers

Plans for 'green' buses on Scots roads by next year

Free bus passes face quicker reform amid budget cuts

Lawyers to settle runway claims

Ryanair sorry for 'Pinocchio' ads

Boeing reveals possible 787 delay

Transport

DfT : Minister sees Britain's new busiest station take shape

FETA - Increased Traffic During Open Golf Weekend

Hitrans – sustainable travel in rural tourism

Network Rail – 3000+ rail crimes committed by young people

Network Rail – 427 crimes committed by young people in Scotland

Network Rail – Historical rail viaducts on track for refurbishment

Network Rail – June sees good performance maintained

Transform Scotland – Transform Scotland members visit to key EGIP sites in east of Scotland

Transport Scotland - Travel Plan for 2010-13 now available

Professional Associations

ATOC – Tens of thousands switch from cars to trains as petrol prices rise

CILT – Central & S Scotland branch visit to Airdrie – Bathgate rail link project