

Evening News (19 July)

Foulkes demands a rethink on 'dogmatic' plan for new bridge

Tuesday, 20 July 2010

Scotsman

Edinburgh airport: Even the Greens say No to 'kiss and fly' fee

Eurotunnel fire still a blight on operators two years on

Trams chief warns lack of courage could scupper major Scots projects

Edinburgh airport: Even the Greens say No to 'kiss and fly' fee

Farnborough air show may mark a return to airline industry recovery

Strikes cost us BA travel perks, say Scots crew

MSP urges new boss to axe drop-off charge

Whether you fly, take the train or go by car, DVT risk is same - doctors

Herald

Services disrupted one month after ferry breakdown

UK Nationals

'Big society' will transform rural Britain, says trekking Tory MP

BA strike ballot result due today

London cycle-hire scheme delayed

Salary and pay are banned words for new Network Rail boss

BBC Online

Concerns aired on Aberdeen transport project delays

City transport delay fears aired .

Tram man in 'be courageous' call

Cycle superhighways are launched

Eurotunnel traffic rises sharply

First Farnborough deals unveiled

SEStran Partnership Authorities

Fife – Carriageway improvements set for Leuchars