

Evening News (22 July)

Passengers stranded as tram works cause city centre gridlock

MSP battles to ground airport fees

Minister hails new rail link between cities

Friday, 23 July 2010

Scotsman

Ash cloud's silver lining for Eurostar

Sustainability watchdog may become cuts victim

Branson unveils £2.2bn deal for new planes - with more in the pipeline

Plea for those hit by travel firms' collapse

Boom time for car makers

Anger over long delay in decision on A8 upgrade

Herald

Upgrade delay to cause years of M8 misery

UK Nationals

Electric bikes: Comparing the Meerkat and Wisper prices

London's transport chief ready to defend capital spending

Has Boris started a cycling revolution? '

Unprofitable rail services could be axed under Government proposals

World's tallest train set built at St Pancras station

A heron gazing dolefully at an empty pond

BBC Online

Strike ballot of UK airport workers

Petrol pumps open again at Applecross

Motorway upgrade delay questioned

MSP welcomes review of rail laws

UK car production up by a quarter

Strike ballot of airport workers

Transport Scotland - Transport

Scotland's train and station quality annual performance results

Professional Associations

ATOC – Seven out of ten people satisfied with ticket buying facilities at stations

FTA – Extend Severn crossing study to England

CILT – European Commission outlines measures to halve road deaths by 2020

NCE - Heathrow Hub fails to make a compelling case, government told

NCE - High-speed route focused on communities, says Hammond